| Purification Method | Chickens were immunized with purified, non-denatured rabbit IgG (containing both heavy and light chains). Eggs were collected from hyperimmunized hens and the IgY fraction purified from the yolks. Anti-rabbit IgG's were affinity-purified over a column conjugated with purified rabbit IgG (containing both heavy and light chains) and then conjugated with horseradish peroxidase. |
| Specificity | H&L; there is no detectable cross-reactivity with goat, human or mouse IgG. |
| Quality Control Tests | Antibodies were tested for specificity using double-immunodiffusion in agarose gels and ELISA analysis. In the latter, a 1:20,000 dilution gave an O.D. of 1.0 in a 15 minute reaction using tetramethylbenzidine as substrate. |
| Storage and Stability | Store at 4°C in the dark. Under these conditions, the antibodies should have a shelf life of at least twelve months, provided they remain sterile. For longer term storage, aliquot and freeze to avoid freeze-thaw of the antibody. |
